

The Five of Clubs Person

The Mentally and Emotionally Restless Card

Five of Clubs means changes and restlessness of the mind and we find these people to have a lot of curiosity and restlessness in their lives. The Five of Hearts displacement tells us that they also have many changes in their romantic life as well and for this reason they are not usually well suited for marriage. These people are basically adventurous and want to do some exploring and research. For this same reason, anything associated with commitment will be avoided like the plague. This can make them nomadic and changeable to the extreme in some cases. Though they are so changeable, actual moves to new homes or lifestyles usually entail many responsibilities and challenges.

The Ace of Spades in Venus speaks of secret love affairs and indecision about which to choose. The Seven of Diamonds in Jupiter is a millionaire's card and many of them have lots of money, though they often spend it or lose it as fast as they get it. Speculation & gambling should be avoided. They are wonderful in sales and promotion because they can relate to so many people on their own level.

Their natural curiosity brings them much knowledge, but they often do not apply it or stick to one train of thought. This tends to make them skeptics, not even getting satisfaction from their own self-created belief structures. An interest in spiritual studies brings more satisfaction in their later years and provides answers that bring more peace into their lives. A spiritual teacher is helpful in this regard.

Some of the Five of Clubs Issues Concerning Relationships

Depending upon the individual, being a Five of Clubs can be a blessing or a curse in the realm of relationships. On the high side they are progressive and can relate to anyone on their level. This makes them well-liked and sociable. On the other hand, the fear of commitment can be so great that they attract the most unusual situations and they may never have the peace of a deep connection. There will be emotional losses in their life regardless, but their attitudes and values tell the real story.

Because of their avoidance of commitment and their Ace of Spades in Venus, they are often attracted to married people or have secret affairs. They do like to keep their private lives to themselves at any rate. The single life is the way for most of them but there are those exceptional ones that settle down and make great contributions in love and work.
