

The Four of Diamonds Person

The Card of Solid Values

The Four of Diamonds is a card of protection in finances, however that protection is only accessed through hard work. This card, above most others, must put forth the effort to reap the rewards or the rewards will run away from them. If they try to get something for nothing, failure and frustration will be the result. Any money they have or receive will always entail some responsibilities.

They have very good business sense and the ability to manage and organize a business successfully. Though others may see them as stubborn, they know that maintaining order and structure in their life and being clear about what is most important to them will always bring them success and satisfaction. They are not going to change anything in their life that is working well for them, no matter what others think or say. Even as children most of them know what is important to them and what is not. They know what they like.

To achieve success, they often have to come to terms with their own inner restlessness (Five of Spades) and dissatisfaction which tends to lead them away from establishing themselves in one area and making true progress. Often the work they must do involves their marriage or their closest relationships. These people are very sociable, meet many people, and usually have many friends. There are difficulties to be dealt with in their life and they must watch a tendency to get into a rut and get stuck there. However, all they need to do to have more happiness is to WORK. Once they get into action, everything smoothes out, and their fears are laid to rest.

The last years of their life are often the ones with the most freedom, happiness and financial blessings. They are usually long-lived and enjoy traveling the world a lot in their later years, experiencing the things they longed for in their youth.

Some of the Four of Diamonds Issues Concerning Relationships

Four of Diamonds men and women have high ideals concerning love and often these ideals can cause confusion in real life romantic situations. Though stable and tough on the outside, inwardly the Four of Diamonds is a very restless person. Either they are restless romantically, or they attract someone who is. In addition, they have the karmic destiny to have one or more difficult marriages, usually ending in divorce. Add all this together and you have people who truly want a good relationship, but must pass through some tests to acquire it. For Four of Diamonds people, male or female, relationships are work and more work. They are often deprived of the life of ease and luxury until later in their life. Problems always ensue if they look upon their relationships as any means of escape from the harshness of life.

They have more than their share of charm and can usually get what they want in a romantic situation. They must be careful not to abuse this power. When they do, the payback is swift and painful, sometimes affecting their health. They have to practice high integrity in relationships to avoid some very challenging karmic involvements.