

The Jack of Spades Person

The Spiritual Initiate or The Thief Card

Through an excess of mental power and creativity, the Jack of Spades can either become a visionary, a spiritual leader, or a thief. This card also represents the 'spiritual initiate' but has also been called the 'Rip-off Card'. Most Jack of Spades will have a little of both of these qualities present and it is up to the individual to direct their highly creative minds with truth and wisdom. Otherwise, their lives can become a complete sham and they are lost, believing their own stories that were concocted to avoid unpleasant life situations.

There is no doubt about their creative power and their ability to do anything with their minds. The question is whether or not they direct this energy with wisdom and patience or whether they are lured by the 'easy wins' they can extract out of many situations and move towards the low side of their card. They sit in a powerful place and this power can either take them to the highest or tempt them to the lowest.

These people always do well with the public and can become successful artists or actors and actresses. They often inherit money even though they can make enough on their own. They are usually ambitious and can expect a successful life in most cases. It is their basic value system, the one they learned in their childhood, that is most responsible for their direction and ultimate success.

Some of the Jack of Spades Issues Concerning Relationships

The Jack of Spades has some love karma to dispel in this lifetime. There are bound to be relationships that come into their lives to show them the value of truth, commitment and the proper use of their strong sexual drive. They are very creative, romantic, and independent and these qualities combined can get them into trouble if not coupled with wisdom and integrity. More than most cards, they dream of an ideal lover or partner and it is this dream that often keeps them searching. It may also be responsible for the high turnover rate in many of their love lives. It may be that no one person could ever match up to the high ideal of love that they hold. Their success in love is always in their hands so there is no one but themselves to blame if they are not satisfied in this area.
