

The Six of Diamonds Person

The Card of Financial Responsibility

The number Six implies responsibility and karma. The suit of Diamonds relates to finances. Six of Diamonds people are keenly aware of financial debts and their repayment. This peculiar trait often manifests as a sort of paranoia about having outstanding debts. I have met Six of Diamonds that pay their phone and utility bills ahead of time, just to feel like they are not in debt. They always have an awareness of who they owe and who owes them on many levels.

Like all Sixes, they receive exactly what they give to others and during this lifetime there can be both huge financial losses and gains as their past-life accounts are settled. They seem to fall into two categories - those who go out of their way to repay their debts, and those who are irresponsible and need to learn to stand on their own two feet.

They may fall into slumps as a result of their inertia so they need to prod themselves into action every once and awhile. Once they get going, they can attain most anything they desire. There is protection in work and action and not in waiting for the lottery.

On a deeper level, the Six of Diamonds person may be here to help others come into a greater understanding of values. If they accept what they receive inwardly through their natural intuition, they will always be happy, regardless of the circumstances in their life. If they have discovered their special mission in life, they will not worry about how much money they have. These people make great teachers. They are givers and can be entrusted with great responsibility. What they have to give is a clear knowledge of higher values and the discrimination to make better personal choices. They are the keepers of the law.

Some of the Six of Diamonds Issues Concerning Relationships

Underneath the tough exterior of the Six of Diamonds lies a person who is having a difficult time meeting their needs for affection. There are often deep fears of abandonment that underlie much of what they do in their personal relationships. Until those fears are dealt with directly, they can have a hard time understanding the repeated failures that make up their love life.

They also have a highly mental approach to love that can lead them to think that they can set up their love life as one would a college curriculum. When their brilliant romantic schemes are being subtly driven by the previously mentioned fears, they backfire. They must learn to first give themselves the affection they seek from others. Honesty about their own feelings and emotions can bring them the information they need to make better assessments of their relationship problems. They must also practice being honest to themselves and others and not fall into creatively talking themselves in and out of situations while avoiding their true feelings. The Six of Diamonds karmic pattern usually involves one major divorce or separation which transforms their life and teaches them about themselves.
