

The Three of Clubs Person

The Writer's Card

The creativity in this card can manifest in many ways. On the high side, these people can be highly successful writers, teachers or performers. On the low side they can worry and spend their time on frivolous activities and never reach their full potential. Even among the most successful ones we will find that worry aspect as a part of their life.

Success in life always depends upon the individual and how they use their God-given gifts and abilities. Three of Clubs are gifted but their fear of poverty may entice them into using their creativity in questionable ways. If this happens, they seldom get away with it. They make great sales people and propagandists but they are ineffective until they decide upon one philosophy and stand behind it.

They are sure to have some emotional losses, many of which are destined and karmic in nature. If they see them as 'completions' and graduations to a higher level, they can avoid disappointment. Their love has the potential to be realized on a more universal level.

If they utilize their inheritance of spiritual knowledge, much success can be realized. They are here to be transformers of energy - worry into creativity and fear into faith. In this manner they serve as powerful examples for us all.

Some of the Three of Clubs Issues Concerning Relationships

Here is a person that is basically indecisive and somewhat afraid to make a commitment one way or the other. Then again, they love to try different things and to experience all that life has to offer. So, we note a lot of going back and forth in the choice of relationships. On the other hand they may time after time attract those who are afraid or unwilling to make a commitment.

A strong creative urge can often spawn extra-marital affairs and some of them may be better off being single. Though there will be some losses in life, they can have love and happiness whenever they can make a firm decision and refuse to accept less than what they truly want.
